Behind Private Lines

Our school is a private school, set apart in our community. We believe in our school, and we think St. Peter's is a unique experience which is priceless beyond the cost of tuition.

What makes St. Peter's so special? The most obvious difference is the Roman Catholic education offered by our school, the only one of its kind in the area. In addition, our small size allows everyone to get to know each other. A close bond has grown among the students and faculty together, giving everyone a sense of belonging and community that they would not find in a larger school. But there is a more important difference which each and every one of us makes. We each have something individual and unique about our personalities which makes us a very special group of people. Together, we make a winning combination that makes it well worth it to take a look...

The yearbook staff would like to dedicate the 1986-87 Petrarchan to a lady who has been a big part of Saint Peter's High School and a friend to twenty-seven classes. Since August 1963, Evelyn Morahan has given her time to St. Peter's as our efficient and hard-working secretary. For her many years of generous service to our school, we dedicate our yearbook to her. We wish her all the best of luck and will remember Mrs. Morahan for her generosity and kindness which have helped to make St. Peter's a truly special place.

TO LIVE IS TO GROW, TO GROW IS TO CHANGE
AND TO BE PERFECT IS TO HAVE CHANGED MANY TIMES.
John Henry Cardinal Newman

April 7, 1987

My Dear Seniors,

The class of 1987 looks forward to a future full of good things: a good college education, a good job, a good marriage and a good life. Here at St. Peter's you have been given the foundation upon which to build your future. Your parents have provided you with a loving homelife on which you can pattern your future lives. You have received an excellent education imbued with Christian values and principles. This education is now yours to do with what you will. Responsibility and self-discipline have been our twin watchwords here and I hope you have benefited from that emphasis. Moreover, I hope our school, together with your parents, has formed you to be generous, open, loving individuals ready and willing to share the gifts of yourself with others.

There is a natural sadness, perhaps, at leaving your old school, your Alma Mater, on graduation day. I think that you are not leaving St. Peter's behind, but rather are taking all that is good and gracious about St. Peter's with you. You are forever a part of St. Peter's and St. Peter's is forever a part of you.

My warmest and most sincere wishes to the Class of 1987 for a future full of happiness, health, holiness and love. God bless each and every one of you and make you saints.

I shall truly miss you, one and all.

Adieu,

Gregory J. O'Connor
